

BIOGRAPHY

KANSAS ARMY NATIONAL GUARD

COMMAND SERGEANT MAJOR BRIAN ANDERSON

Command Sgt. Maj. Brian Anderson entered the United States Army Aug. 27, 1984.

Anderson's duty assignments in the Kansas Army National Guard include fire support noncommissioned officer, brigade targeting noncommissioned officer, first sergeant, and battalion command sergeant major. He currently serves as the interim Kansas Army National Guard Land Component command sergeant major.

Anderson's military education includes U.S. Army Air Assault course, battalion and brigade level command sergeant major leadership training seminar, Sergeants Major Academy, First Sergeant Course, Basic and Advanced Noncommissioned Officer Course.

His military awards include Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster, Army Achievement Medal with four oak leaf clusters, Army Good Conduct Medal, Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal with oak leaf cluster, National Defense Service Medal, Southwest Asia Service Medal with two campaign stars, Operation Iraqi Freedom, and Global War on Terrorism Medal. Anderson is also a member of the Order of Saint Barbara.

Anderson is completing his bachelor's degree in Public Administration in Criminal Justice. In his civilian job Anderson is a sergeant with the Leavenworth Police Department, Leavenworth, Kansas.

